Office of Evangelization & Lay Formation Ministry

Assist the parishes in the cause and effort of evangelization. It is our goal as a diocese to assist parishes in proclaiming to all people the love, compassion, hope and promise of Jesus Christ as preserved and proclaimed in the Gospel.

Office of Vocations

The whole of the diocese benefits from the work of the Vocations office when men and women who are discerning God's call.

This assistance, particularly for men studying for diocesan priesthood, means that more priest and religious will be available to serve in our parishes, schools and in other capacities in our diocese.

Office of Youth & Young Adult Ministry

Exists to serve as a resource for faith communities in the diocese in providing comprehensive outreach to high school teens and to young adults. Assists with the recognition of the 'Church of Tomorrow' within the 'Church of Today.'

Office of the Tribunal

The official ecclesiastical court of the Church. Assists the bishop in carrying out his responsibilities as the shepherd of the local community. As the judicial arm of the bishop, the tribunal cooperates in his ministry, "the salvation of souls, which must always be the supreme law of the Church" (canon 1752).

Seminarian Formation

Provides support to the men and women of the diocese who are considering a call to serve the Church, no matter their age. Assists them in their discernment process with personal counseling, connections to spiritual advisors, and provide a variety of other resources.

Catholic Television Network of Youngstown

Provides the major telecommunications opportunity for people to learn about the faith, especially through the mediums of radio and television. This ministry benefits those especially who are unable to leave their home to go to church or other social functions.

Office of Religious Education

Provides Adult Faith Formation and holds a vast collection of resources through the Office of Religious Education Library. We strive to assist all persons seeking to enhance catechetical and other pastoral ministries through consultation, resources, and networking among groups.
