

COUNSELING REFERRALS

Professional case management and social work services are available in many of Catholic Charities' programs. However, we no longer provide specific mental health counseling services. Clients in need of counseling services can contact any of the professionals and organizations listed below. Those appearing on the following list have either worked with Catholic Charities in the past, or have favorable reputations in the community. This is not an exhaustive list and does not suggest endorsement of any particular organization. For more information and additional counseling resources, contact your local CCC.
