

CATHOLIC CHARITIES' ANNUAL VOICE OF HOPE DINNER

Would you help Milena?

Milena is a young woman recently abandoned by her husband in the early stages of her pregnancy. She has no family support system and is anxious about raising her child alone. In her time of need, Milena turned to Catholic Charities and found the help and compassion that she was desperately seeking. Staff members were able to provide Milena with mental assistance and many of the things her babies need, such as formula and diapers. Catholic Charities did not abandon Milena and her child in their time of darkness, but instead shined a light of hope on their future.

Catholic Charities' Annual Voice of Hope Dinner, raises funds to provide basic needs assistance to people just like Milena across the Diocese of Youngstown. This year's event will include a keynote address from The Most Reverend David J. Boonin, Bishop of Youngstown, and the presentation of Voice of Hope Awards to Very Reverend Monsignor Robert J. Sillis and Ms. George R. Garbar.
